Dear Mr. Jacobs,

By supporting the president in his repeated failed, attempts to cover his mistaken claim that Alabama was threatened by hurricane Dorian, you have politicized NOAA, thrown your fine team of scientists under the bus, and made suspect every forecast NOAA produces.

Shame on you for caving to the craven desires of president who would much prefer to destroy the integrity of everyone around him than to admit he made a mistake. Evidently, you aren't the adult in the room, either.

River Stillwood,

Vanzant, MO
