"Let go of your plans. The first hour of your morning belongs to God. Tackle the day's work that he charges you with, and he will give you the power to accomplish it."

-- St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (b. Edith Stein), (1891-1942)

Do not buy pets from breeders, whether legitimate or "backyard" breeders. Adopt from the shelters or from non-profit animal rescue organizations. Do not support landlords that choose to not allow pets...which is the main reason, behind breeding overpopulation, that pets end up in the shelter. Spay and neuter your pets and any free roaming cats in your neighborhood. Do not take animals to the shelter or humane society, but instead spay and neuter, chip them, and then find a home for them. Microchip your pets. Over 7 million pets enter the shelters every year and only half make it out alive. Support your local non-profit animal rescue organization as opposed to the shelters and humane societies which use a large portion for administrative costs. Adopt, don't shop!
