Subject: Dorian forecast- Alabama

Weather emergencies aren't Fox News political opinions. Scientists' forecasts can help save lives. These political appointees are playing politics with people's lives! The entire Trump administration should be ashamed but they can't even blush at their deranged daily lies putting people's lives in danger!

You chose to make trump look good over science, facts and public safety.

You are unethical political hacks, protecting trump rather than serving the public and telling the truth
