Hi Rosalie,
As is the case with all-consuming projects, I keep thinking off new earth shattering points to make. Can I add them now and send you a more updated version, or have you started your review? If the latter, I'll wait.

Hi Rosalie,
Here's a draft of the subject doc for your review. You'll see there is still a bit of a placeholder/text to incorporate related to Shasta Reservoir temperature management, but otherwise it is ready for review.

It's also saved here:
R:\Draft BiOp\2_ESA\2.8-2.9 Integration and Synthesis and Conclusion

Thanks,
Brian
